VP, Client Service

About Craig Kodish

Craig Kodish is a business development executive with a proven track record of driving growth for consulting firms and helping companies achieve their financial goals. As VP of Client Service at 8020 Consulting, he partners with CFOs, Controllers, and private equity stakeholders to deliver high-impact solutions across operational accounting, audit readiness, M&A integration, and IPO preparation.

Craig has held senior roles at firms including Effectus Group and RGP, where he built and scaled consulting practices serving high-growth and PE-backed companies. He brings a client-first mindset to every engagement—ensuring the right expertise is in place and that clients gain measurable value from every hour billed.

He holds an MBA from the USC Marshall School of Business and a BS from the University of Arizona, where he double majored in Management Information Systems and Operations Management. Based in Los Angeles, Craig is passionate about aligning sales strategy with client success and long-term business growth.
